AN OLD BOSTON FIRM BRANCHING OUT IN A NEW DIRECTION.

Another department has been added to Messrs. MACULLAR, PARKER & COMPANY'S business, and the public are now invited to call and see the result of several months of busy preparation. A liberal portion of the firm's great hall at 400 Washington Street has been set apart for the sale of youth's, boys' and children's clothing. The area enclosed for the reception of customers and for the display of goods, comprises about four thousand square feet. Within the space thus railed off by itself and complete in itself for its own purposes, is a great stock of standard goods for young people as well as every needed convenience for themselves and their attending friends in selecting and buying. Everything in the way of store furniture and fixtures has been adopted with a view to harmonious and tasteful effects, combined with solid and enduring carpentry and cabinet work of the highest order. All is new, and of special adaptation to the plan in view. While everything is thus elegant and sightly in its way, still, as a rule, embellishment has been subordinated to utility. Ladies and children in their charge will appreciate the provision made for their accommodation. Large mirrors and favoring light from many windows contribute their quota of excellence to the general result. In all its aspects there is no finer apartment in the city for strictly business purposes. Visitors will enter by the Washington Street front at No. 400.

This new departure by an old firm (now forty years in trade, and with an unblemished record) was prompted and hastened by a public demand that could not easily be withstood. Having now once begun, the house will make root-and-branch work of it in its efforts to meet the market more than half way. It has engaged a special force of salesmen experienced in fitting children's clothing; and without in the least abating their efforts in the other departments, it is intended to give Boston and vicinity unrivalled facilities for buying from a large and general stock, and at fair and reasonable prices for the best production.

The department is in charge of Mr. J. E. Leavitt, lately with Messrs. Terry & Cook.

AN ACROSTIC.

Royal the Rising Sun,
In the east on fiery car,
Strong his daily course to run,
Is with welcome hailed afar.
Nature in his radiance bright,
Glowingly her form arrays;

Sings her songs of sweet delight
Unisonant in his praise.
Nations dwelling far and near,

See with joy his golden beams,
Throwing back dark night, appear,
Over plains and hills and streams,
Vividly his beams suggest,
Every bright and cheerful thing;

Perfect, of its kind the best,
One, the POLISH that I sing.
Lo! afar you find it famed,
It the praise of all hath won;
So this Polish hath been named,
Happily, THE RISING SUN.

DR. E. S. FOSTER & Co.,
CONSULTING OPTICIANS,

Directly opposite R. H. WHITE & CO.'S Bedford St. Entrance,

40 BEDFORD STREET, BOSTON.

SPECIAL ATTENTION given to the scientific examination of the human eye, and the accurate fitting of spectacles and eye-glasses, for the correction of all errors of refraction, and defects of accommodation — commonly called optical defects of the eye — a few of which we mention, viz.: Myopia, near or short sight; Hypermetropia (Hyperopia), long, or oversight; Presbyopia, old or aging sight; Asthenopia, weak sight; also, Astigmatism, Anisometropia, Strabismus, Diplopia, etc., etc.

The public will bear in mind that they receive the same scientific tests and examination for all defects of vision with us that they would at the hands of any Oculist in Boston, and thereby save the examination fee of $10 to $25, and the exorbitant price to the Oculist's Optician for the glasses, and if the first pair is not right, you must pay another fee for examination, and also for more glasses, and so on, until you are properly fitted. Remember we make no charge for examination, and guarantee a fit for the price of one pair of glasses. We treat all defects of vision for which lenses are worn.

FOLITE AND COURTEOUS TREATMENT.

Satisfaction Guaranteed. Repairing Neatly Executed.
